Biography

Çağlar is the Managing Partner of SDV Fenchurch Türkiye, leading the firm's expansion across the Turkic and Balkan regions.

He has extensive experience in the insurance and reinsurance sector, with a practice focused on supporting brokers and representing policyholders. He began his career as in-house counsel at Marsh in Istanbul, gaining first-hand insight into the challenges faced by insurance intermediaries and insureds. He went on to establish his own firm, providing specialist services to the insurance broker community and building a reputation for his expertise in regulatory, compliance, and contractual matters.

Today, Çağlar advises both global and local brokers, helping to standardise market documentation, navigate complex regulatory environments, and resolve high-value coverage disputes. His work is defined by a pro-policyholder approach, deep sector knowledge, and a commitment to securing fair outcomes for insureds.

Experience

Çağlar Kaçar advises policyholders, insurance and reinsurance brokers, and corporate clients on Turkish insurance law, claims recovery, broker regulation and insurance-sector compliance. His experience includes high-value property damage and business interruption claims, energy and industrial losses, broker duties, market-security issues, TOBA and co-broker/sub-broker arrangements, policyholder disclosure obligations, data transfer and data residency matters, and the Turkish-law adaptation of international insurance documentation. He regularly works with global and local brokers on complex regulatory questions and with claims advocacy teams and corporate policyholders on denied, disputed or strategically significant insurance recoveries.
