

Javier Wesolowski

Partner and Head of Litigation

✉ javier.wesolowski@sdvfenchurch.es

☎ +34 917 359 035

📍 Madrid

Biography

Javier holds a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) from the Complutense University of Madrid and an LL.M. in Business Law, Litigation, and Arbitration from the University of Navarra. He is a Lecturer in Procedural Law at both the University of Navarra and Universidad Villanueva, and he holds the Level 1 Certification (the highest qualification for insurance distribution in Spain), qualifying him to lead distribution activities and provide expert advice for any insurance distributor.

Experience

Prior to joining SDV Fenchurch Wesolowski, Javier developed his expertise at the Madrid offices of two leading international law firms, focusing on litigation, arbitration, and corporate crime.

Javier represents clients in complex disputes across a wide range of insurance lines and international programmes.

His experience includes:

Financial & Professional Lines: D&O, General Liability, and Professional Indemnity (PI).

Technical & Industrial Risks: CAR (Construction All Risks), material damage, and business interruption.

Specialty Lines: Cyber insurance and other emerging risks.

White-Collar Crime: Legal counsel and defense in corporate criminal proceedings.

Education

LL.M. in Business Law, Litigation, and Arbitration,
University of Navarra

Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.), Complutense University of Madrid

Achievements

Market Recognition: Javier is consistently recognised by the most prestigious international legal directories, including Chambers & Partners and The Legal 500, for his outstanding expertise in the insurance sector.

