Biography

Thibaut Gribelin is an insurance recovery partner whose practice focuses on managing and defending claims on behalf of policyholders. He has developed a deep understanding of financial lines, including W&I insurance for mergers and acquisitions, directors' and officers' liability, cyber incidents, product liability, coverage for financial institutions, and policies covering misappropriation risks.

He has a strong experience in claim management and optimization of communications with insurers until coverage is granted. From the outset of a loss, he assists his clients with insurance policy analysis, team coordination, appointment of technical experts or loss adjusters, and negotiations on coverage.

Experience

Thibaut was trained as both an insolvency practitioner and insurance lawyer. He has been practicing as a litigator since January 2014 before the courts of Paris and France. Before being admitted to the Paris bar, he gave lectures on property law at University Lyon III.
